

SES Key Messages

The SES is composed of trained, professional volunteers in orange overalls.

The SES is the lead agency and the primary source of help during floods and storms, and they are trained and equipped to get on with the job.

The SES is a community-based, people-focussed organisation

The SES works closely with other emergency services.

For emergency help in floods or storms ring the SES on 132 500

People can take simple measures to help protect themselves and their property.